Overview

This unit is about carrying out street cleansing by hand using a brush and a barrow or cart. It covers removing litter and detritus from public areas including grounds, streets, pavements, pedestrianised areas and car parks. It involves identifying and following the correct procedures to deal with any litter that may pose a risk to health and safety.

It is important to ensure that, when you have finished your work, grounds are litter free and debris and detritus, as is feasible, has been removed.

This unit consists of two elements:
