Buddy a colleague to develop their customer service skills

Overview

This Standard is part of the Customer Service Theme of Development and Improvement. This Theme covers activities and approaches that play a vital part in customer service by seeking and implementing improvements and developments. Remember that customers include everyone you provide a service to. They may be external to your organisation or they may be internal customers.

In customer service roles it is often useful to have a 'buddy' relationship with somebody who has more experience of the same customer service situation. If you are asked to buddy a colleague who is learning customer service aspects of their job, you need to approach that responsibility in an organised way. This Standard is about how to be a good buddy by working alongside your colleague and providing them with constructive feedback and support. You do not need to be more senior than your colleague or their supervisor to act as a customer service buddy.
