Develop the culture of your organisation

Overview

Every organisation, whatever its size or history, has a culture (simply defined as 'the way we do things around here'). The culture of an organisation is based on assumptions and values about organisations, working life and relationships. These values influence the way people behave towards each other and customers, and how they relate to their work. There may be no such thing as a 'right' or 'wrong' culture. However, the culture of an organisation has to be in line with its overall vision and strategy. If culture and strategy do not match, it's unlikely the vision will be achieved.

For the purposes of this unit, an 'organisation' can mean a self-contained entity such as a private sector company, a charity or a local authority, or a significant operating unit, with a relative degree of autonomy, within a larger organisation.

The unit is recommended for senior managers.

This unit is linked to a number of units in the overall suite of National Occupational Standards for Management and Leadership, particularly:

- B7 Provide leadership for your organisation.
- C3 Encourage innovation in your organisation.
- C4 Lead change.
- C5 Plan change.
- E7 Ensure an effective organisational approach to health and safety.
- F10 Develop a customer-focused organisation.
