

Carry out slaughtering for Kosher meat

Overview

This standard is about the skills and knowledge needed to carry out religious slaughter for Kosher meat. If you work in this area and carry out Shechita you must follow closely defined procedures. It is also about understanding Halachot (rules) of Shechita and the types of animals that can be used and the Shechita procedures.

This standard is for you if your job requires a broad knowledge and understanding of the Jewish humane method of religious slaughtering of animals. For this you have to be a male of Jewish faith and require a licence, from the local authority and the Rabbinical Commission for the licensing of Shochetim (England/Wales) or the Chief Rabbi (Scotland). You will have qualified from Talmudical college and graduated in Yoreh Deah as a minimum for training as a Shochet.

This standard is for you if you work in religious slaughter area of a meat facility.
