

Overview

This standard is about ensuring that you are able to protect the health, safety and wellbeing of yourself and participants including the safeguarding before and after a session.

Performance criteria

- You must be able to:*
- P1 identify the specific needs of your participants and determine what you will do to meet their needs
 - P2 structure sessions for safe and effective delivery to participants that ensures their well being and sets appropriate goals
 - P3 facilitate a safe and effective environment that puts individuals at ease
 - P4 undertake relevant risk assessment procedures and manage risk appropriately
 - P5 establish ground rules for equality, respects and safety of participants and yourself in your arts sessions

Knowledge and understanding

- You need to know and understand:*
- K1 the importance of observation of participants to assess safe and effective practice
 - K2 the importance of establishing ground rules with participants
 - K3 how to assess, respond and be flexible to your participants needs within the session
 - K4 how to consider the wellbeing of participants in your session
 - K5 where to obtain additional support for your practice
 - K6 how to take responsibility for your wellbeing
 - K7 how to undertake a risk assessment and manage risks appropriately
 - K8 relevant ethical, legal and professional responsibilities in an arts environment

Deliver safe arts leadership

Developed by	Creative & Cultural Skills
Version Number	1
Date Approved	January 2013
Indicative Review Date	April 2016
Validity	Current
Status	Original
Originating Organisation	Creative & Cultural Skills
Original URN	CCSCA23
Relevant Occupations	Animator; Arts Development Worker; Freelance Artist; Community Artist; Artist; Arts Leader; Participatory Arts Leader
Suite	Community Arts
Keywords	Community Arts; Arts Leadership; Arts Work; Art Programmes; Arts Engagement; group facilitation; group dynamics; Arts Administration; Participatory Arts; Arts Leader; Arts Programme;