

Overview

This standard is about providing support to officials, litigants and others at courts and tribunals. It includes providing procedural direction on behalf of courts and tribunals and receiving and recording outcomes.

This standard excludes offering any advice on judicial or legal matters or proceedings which require legal training or qualifications.

Cases can be either criminal or civil in courts, tribunals or prosecutions.

Performance criteria

You must be able to:

1. prioritise cases of short duration to be heard first in line with organisational requirements
2. confirm availability of special arrangements required by individuals in line with organisational requirements
3. confirm equipment required for special arrangements is working correctly in line with organisational requirements and manufacturer's instructions
4. address problems in relation to special arrangements in line with organisational requirements
5. confirm individuals using special measures understand and can operate equipment provided in line with organisational requirements
6. operate recording equipment in line with organisational requirements
7. call cases in line with organisational requirements
8. provide support and direction to parties in line with organisational requirements
9. deal with individuals in ways which promote positive behaviour and attitudes in line with organisational requirement
10. provide instruction on proceedings in line with organisational requirements
11. respond to requests for advice on procedures in line with organisational requirements
12. make information available to those who need it and have a right to it in line with organisational requirements
13. establish and record outcomes have been reached in line with organisational requirements
14. confirm parties present are aware and understand outcomes and their impact in line with organisational and legislative requirements
15. maintain records of outcomes in line with organisational requirements
16. notify authorities of outcomes in line with organisational and legislative requirements

Knowledge and understanding

- You need to know and understand:*
1. current organisational requirements and procedures relating to courts and tribunals in your area of authority and responsibility, including:
 - 1.1 providing support and direction to those at courts and tribunals
 - 1.2 providing instruction and advice on procedure in courts and tribunals
 - 1.3 receiving and recording outcomes
 2. benefits of hearing cases of a short duration first
 3. different methods of communication and how to adapt your style to suit the needs of individuals
 4. how to maintain records relating to courts and tribunals
 5. the range of special arrangements available including communication and access equipment
 6. the advantages and disadvantages of special arrangements for those using them and the court and tribunal process
 7. how to operate equipment associated with special arrangements
 8. authorities to be notified of outcomes of cases and how to do this

Support proceedings in courts and tribunals

Developed by Skills for Justice

Version Number 3

Date Approved February 2018

Indicative Review Date February 2023

Validity Current

Status Original

Originating Organisation Skills for Justice

Original URN SFJ DC3

Relevant Occupations Court Officer; Prosecution Officer; Tribunal Officer

Suite Courts, Tribunals and Prosecution

Keywords Court; tribunal; case; proceedings; support; officials; litigants; procedures
