

Overview

This Standard is for anyone who works and defines the competences required in order to comply with emergency procedures as they occur. It covers responding to and raising the alarm, alerting others and minimising the effect of an emergency as well as reporting any acts of Performance criteria

You must be able to:

Respond to emergency situations

1.
identify and evaluate situations that have the potential to affect the safety of yourself and others 2.
report the situation immediately to the relevant person(s) 3.
seek assistance from the relevant person(s) where you cannot rectify the situation 4.
promptly act to minimise the risk to people and the environment in line with your job responsibilities and organizational procedures 5.
comply with emergency evacuation procedures if required in line with your organisational procedures 6.
complete any required documentation in line with health and safety, legislative and organisational requirements

Knowledge and understanding

You need to know and understand:

You need to know and Emergencies

1.
how to identify an emergency situation 2.
your organisation's emergency response procedures 3.
evacuation procedures of your workplace/site 4.
changes that may be required to the operation of your workplace/site as a result of an emergency situation 5.
how and when to liaise with emergency services 6.
the reporting lines within your organisation 7.
the limits of your own responsibility 8.
your organisational recording procedures

Comply with emergency procedures

Developed by Energy & Utility Skills

Version Number 2

Date Approved 01 Nov 2017

Indicative Review Date 01 Nov 2021

Validity Current

Status Original

Originating Organisation Energy & utility skills

Original URN euswo51

Relevant Occupations Public Services, Waste Operative

Suite Frontline Environmental Services

Keywords Emergency; Procedures; Waste; Management; First aider; Major service failure; Emergency services; Environment; Environmental damage; Hazards
