

Overview

This standard is about in situ glass surface restoration work, and includes assessing the damage on the glass surface, such as scratches and graffiti. It also requires preparation and set up of the equipment correctly, restoring the damaged part of the surface and polishing to the required standard.

This standard is for you if you carry out surface damage restoration work to glass and glazing installations on site

GQAGLA29

Restore glass surface in situ

---

Performance criteria

You must be able to: