

Overview

This standard is about following design processes effectively. This involves communicating with the right people at the right times and following accepted processes and protocols whilst ensuring that design work meets expectations. Clients may be individuals, organisations or departments either inside or outside the organisation for whom you are working. You may also need to work with manufacturers, colleagues inside or outside your organisation or other designers.

PROFD11

Follow design processes

Performance criteria

You must be able to: